

Aesthetic design, easy installation, user friendly...

FEATURES

ML-0150 recessed mounting base is used for mounting conventional as well as addressable detectors on false ceilings of various types. (metal, plaster etc.) The base allows creating more aesthetic architectural applications. Bases are produced from ABS and have the same color as detectors. Bases are flush-mounted into ceiling with two clamps and stainless steel crews.

- Compatible with all false ceilings of various types.
- ABS construction and have the same color as detectors.
- Durable and long-lasting.
- Easy mounting via 2 stainless steel screws.

MODELS

Product	Description
ML-0150	Recessed mounting base

Against to fire hazards, protecting your life and properties is serious principle for Mavili Elektronik. Mavili Elektronik has been generating confidence for since 1987.

